

Draft Minutes -- Board of Appeals For the Town of LaPointe

Concerning an Administrative Appeal to the Town Plan Commission's Decision to Allow Craftivity, Inc. to modify their Conditional Use Permit to allow lodging at 978 Middle Road Parcel 014-00178-0200
Petitioners: Paul Brummer and Sara Owen

Tuesday, May 20, 2008, After the Public Hearing on the Same Matter.

Note: This body consists of Town Board Members in Accordance with the Town of La Pointe Zoning Ordinance. A majority or the entire LaPointe Town Board will likely be in attendance but will not convene as the Town Board. No Town Board business will be done, no motions made as the LaPointe Town Board, nor any business conducted, excepting as this posted Board of Appeals.

1. Decide on Appeal by Petitioners Paul Brummer and Sara Owen concerning modification of Conditional Use Permit

Mr. Fauerbach, the Town's Attorney is present. He makes it clear that he is not there to help with the decision, but to advise on process.

He also states that the LaPointe Town Board will not decide the CUP alteration status tonight, but whether to affirm or deny the appeal.

All find all objections not applicable to section 7.1.2 of the La Pointe Zoning Code.

Jim Patterson hopes that housing might help some locals in the winter and that it be for Students only in the summer.

Mike Starck moves – Beth Fischlowitz seconds – to affirm Town Plan Commission recommendation thus denying the appeal – 5 aye, Jim Patterson abstains.

2. Adjourn

Mike Starck moves – to adjourn – Beth Fischlowitz seconds – Motion Carries -- 5 ayes
